With seven past presidents of the Campbell P. T. A. present, Founders' day was celebrated at the local school Tuesday afternoon with a program prepared by Mrs. Horace Allen and a silver tea. The day also marked the 21st birthday of the local organization.

Past presidents, who gave brief talks on the problems and achievements of their administrations, were Mrs. Harry C. Smith, Mrs. Andrew Johnson, Mrs. J. E. Badger, Mrs. Calvin Bohnett, Mrs. C. H. Davidson, Mrs. Horace Allen, Mrs. S. N. Hedegard. Mrs. Harry Rediker, incumbent, also discussed present-day plans. A charter member of the organization, Mrs. Robert W. Kennedy, was also welcomed. Messages to the members from other past presidents, Mrs. Lucy Smith, Mrs. George Schuyler, and Mrs. A. D. Rice, were delivered by Mrs. Allen. Mrs. J. B. Collins recited a "Tribute to the Founders of the P. T. A."

Members of the Girl's glee club of the grammar school, directed and accompanied by Mrs. Ruth Stuart, gave several charming musical numbers at the Tuesday program, including a P. T. Comprising the glee club were Margaret Tanner, Geraldine Jurras, who announced the program, Emily Bohnett, June Porter, Dorothy Ruch, Angelina Cabral, Doris Roberts, Luana Smeed, Clarabelle Willis, Francis Frisch, Ellouise Sanford, Gladys Everett, and Eva Borg.

Mrs. T. M. Wright, one of the charter members of the first Santa Clara county P. T. A., introduced by Mrs. Allen, gave interesting glimpses of the experiences of this first mother's club, in East San Jose, formed in about 1900. She also described the organization of the first high school mother's club, in 1908, of which Mrs. J. O. Hayes was elected president. The P. T. A. organization, she said, was officially concluded in 1912, and Mrs. J. O. Hayes was elected president of the bay district.

Committees for the Friday Friendship dinner were appointed at Tuesday's meeting by Mrs. Rediker. They included Mrs. J. A. Wellington, Mrs. C. T. Tanner, Mrs. Guy Farley, and Mrs. Mary Evans, table setting; Mrs. Howe and Mrs. Silas Penhall, tickets; and Mrs. Guy Farley, Mrs. Wilbur Mitchell, Mrs. Anthony Jurras, Mrs. Julius Bachman, Mrs. Horace Allen, Mrs. C. E. York, Mrs. Stanley Smith, Mrs. McVea, Mrs. W. W. Lester, Mrs. E. L. Farnham, Mrs. M. H. Farnham, Mrs. W. E. Vaughn, Mrs. Ira Abbott, Mrs. Al Covey, Mrs. E. Kersgard, Mrs. Fred Nichols, Mrs. S. N. Hedegard, Mrs. G. E. Jeffers, Mrs. Warren Van Every, Mrs. S. G. Rice, and Mrs. Harry Rediker, hostesses; Ira Abbott, toastmaster.

Miss Mary Fablinger's class won the attendance prize at Tuesday's meeting. Short reports were made by Miss Rowena Farman and Mrs. A. C. Girard. Miss Farman announced that 30 needy children are fed daily, on the average.

After the program the guests adjourned to the school cafeteria where a silver tea was served by the mothers of Mrs. Marion Plumm's class, assisted by parents of Miss Dorothy Merriman's class and Miss Hancie Naylor's class. A huge birthday cake, donated by the Taste Good bakery, was served, with Mrs. Harry C. Smith officially cutting it.

Rail, Ocean Lines Aid Prune Industry

Dining services of many far flung transportation companies are cooperating in the aggressive campaign of the United Prune Growers of California to promote increased use of prunes and a more definite appreciation of their healthfulness and delicious qualities.

Recently F. R. Wilcox, general manager of the United, requested the principal railroads of the United States and the larger steamship companies to feature prunes on their menus and to give the new promotional work all the publicity possible. Participating packers, who ship virtually the entire California crop, added their influence to that of the United, with the result that a most encouraging response came from the transportation companies.

The Western Pacific railroad, for example, is not only featuring California prunes in its dining cars, but is also posting copies of the United's full page color advertisements on bulletin boards in stations. The Baltimore & Ohio had a special prune week from Jan. 15 to 21, all stewards of dining cars being instructed to display prunes on menus and to attach special slips to menu cards. The Southern Pacific has offerred to place a prune sticker on correspondence.

Holland-American line has featured California prune whip and California prune pie, recipes for which were taken from the United Prune Growers recipe book, "Prunes for Epicures." General Steamship corporation has distributed recipe books to its forty steam ships. Dollar Steamship lines instructed their stewards department to feature California prunes. Grace line, Panama Pacific, French line, Hamburg-American, Italian line, Luckenbach, and Union Steamship have promised their fullest cooperation.

Assistance has also been promised by the following railroads, with a number of others yet to be heard from definitely:

Pennsylvania railroad, St. Louis Southwestern, Missouri-Kansas-Texas, Missouri Pacific, Santa Fe, Chicago Great Western, Chicago & Northwestern, Denver & Rio Grande Western, Erie, Northern Pacific, Wabash, Kansas City Southern, and Lehigh Valley.

Herbert M. Shadle Re-elected Head Of Local C. of C.

Herbert M. Shadle, local druggist, was unanimously re-elected president of the Campbell chamber of commerce at a meeting of the civic body Tuesday night in the community hall. Guy Farley, chairman of the nominating committee, in presenting Shadle's name, praised his leadership and efficiency.

Dan Yeager, termed by Mr. Farley "the best secretary we've had yet," was re-elected to that office.

Five directors of the organization were chosen, including Hans Hansen, Guy Farley, Dr. W. I. Merrill, S. N. Hedegard, and H. C. Smith.

Progress of the petition for the extension of West Campbell avenue was reported by S. N. Hedegard, chairman of the road committee, who stated that he, assisted by G. E. Farley, B. O. Curry, and C. H. Whitman, had presented the petition to the county supervisors and filed a bond for it. Further hearing on the matter has been set for next Monday's supervisor meeting. Dan Yeager, secretary, was requested to send letters to the supervisors and to interested individuals, in an effort to speed the settlement of the question.

Formation of five new fire districts, which will double the area protected, without raising taxes, seemed a possibility after Hedegard reported the work of the fire committee. Maps of the proposed additions, drawn by Robert Chandler, county surveyor, aided by Hedegard, Yeager and Al Covey, were exhibited. The five districts include the Winchester and Hamilton road new subdivision; the east side of North Central avenue; the Smith-Righter subdivision; the section south of Sunnyside avenue, and the district south of the Hedegard home, on Winchester, Campbell and Rincon.

Five petitions for these new fire districts have been drawn up and signatures will be obtained immediately.

Stephen Merrill Sings Weekly At California

Stephen Merrill, Campbell's national radio audition winner, last Thursday signed a contract which schedules his weekly appearance at the Fox California theater, Friday night at 9 o'clock, and at station KFRC Thursday from 12 to 12:15 p. m. The Fox California theater, Sherman Clay and company of San Jose, and the RCA-Victor corporation are sponsoring Mr. Merrill.

He will open his schedule this Thursday and Friday, and he asks that requests for special numbers at the California be mailed to the theater.

Many of the songs Mr. Merrill has made as records on the RCA-Victor Biacoustic home recording radio-phonograph at Sherman Clay and company will be sung by him at these appearances.

Earl Bowman will be his accompanist.

Current Comment

Now that Adolph Hitler has his finger on the German pulse, and sponsored as he is by German capitalists, he should be able to do a lot for the common herd in that much malinged country. That is what he thinks. To really make any headway, however, we believe he will be obliged to turn his "brownshirts" loose on his sponsors and make himself true dictator. That move would probably run into opposition in the form of President von Hindenburg's military, which seems to be pretty loyal to Germany's "grand old man." On the other hand, he might succeed. And then what would happen? Ha! He'd get a horse and that would be the end of him. Whichever way you look at it he's bound to lose.

Another chap who is bound to lose is the fellow who drives a car without insurance. No matter how good you are, and how free from accident your record, sooner or later you are going to barge into somebody, or somebody is going to barge into you. Then there'll be a few bills to pay—maybe damages for a human life. The insurance companies are better able to pay these costs than is the average citizen. Besides, anyone who takes other people out in an uninsured car would take his grandmother out in a leaky rowboat, and should be suppressed on general principles. If you're one of those fellows, see any local insurance agent immediately. No, this isn't an advertisement—just a good idea.

You've no idea how hard it is to write this column every week. We are obliged to tread softly on local matters, and there's nothing funny about national affairs—regardless of the fact that the whole situation is one huge joke on somebody. (We're beginning to suspect that it's on us.)

It used to be that a person had to contend with an occasional wolf at the door. Now it's a wolf, and the missus wolf, and all the little wolves. Our particular wolf moved in the other day and had pups on the parlor floor. They were so cute we didn't have the heart to destroy them. We did relegate them to the back yard, however.

After March 4, we suppose things will get better. The new administration, we understand, is going to offer a $500 bounty on wolves as their first act to relieve the depression. One scalp will do us nicely, and we're keeping the mama wolf chained up until it will be profitable to feed her a cyanide sandwich. We're going to let all the baby wolves go, so keep your eyes open. Maybe you can get one.

This here, now, Tammany beer, too, will do a lot to alleviate hard times, don't you think? And the reorganization of our banking system—if there are any banks left to reorganize by that time.

Glancing over the above remarks, we conclude that we have left an opening or two for the charge, "Pessimist!" We really aren't pessimistic—just a little doubtful of the future.

Miss Eulah Hook is program chairman of a formal dinner to be given by the San Jose State Kindergarten-Primary club at the Hotel Sainte Claire this Saturday evening.

Jeanne Halamicek Wins Acclamation In Sunday Concert

Enchanting her audience with her personal charm and the quality of her voice Miss Jeanne Halamicek presented a concert at the Methodist church last Sunday night.

Miss Jeanne, although but thirteen years old, is an artist. Her voice, which she handles skilfully, has power and a beautiful tone. Her interpretation of the music is excellent; she adds a dramatic sympathy to the delivery of her songs.

Particularly poignant was the "The Brown Bird Singing," by Haydenwood, and "Dannie Boy," an old melody. The emotional quality of "The Voice in the Wilderness," by John Scott and "O Lord Most Holy," by Cesar Franck inspired the members of the audience. Miss Jeanne sang "Thou Art So Like a Flower," by Chadwick in a pleasingly sprightly fashion.

"Songs My Mother Taught Me" and "A Little Lullaby" by Jocelyn touched a responsive chord in each listener's heart. Two old favorittes given Sunday were "Trees," by Joyce Kilmer, and "The Rugged Cross," the audience singing the chorous of the latter.

Miss Jeanne paid tribute to her grandfather, Josef Halamicek, when she sang "Ave Maria," one of his compositions. "Going Home," from the New World Symphony of Dvorak was a beautiful conclusion to the evening.

Miss Jeanne's mother accompanied her at the organ during the entire program.

"Music" was the subject of the message given by the Rev. C. E. Irons Sunday night; he emphasized the power of music on man's emotions and actions.

IRONS ADDRESSES GRADUATING CLASS ON SUCCESSFUL LIFE

Speaking on "What Are You Worth," the Rev. C. E. Irons addressed members of the eighth grade graduating class and their parents and friends at the semi-annual graduation exercises in the Campbell grammar school last Thursday night.

"If you're not worth something to yourself you can't possibly be worth anything to anyone else," was the pastor's dictum. "If you haven't your own self-respect, your life is a failure."

Thirty-two pupils received diplomas Thursday night. Two more were prevented by illness from attending the ceremonies. Miss Mary Fablinger was their class teacher. Their motto was "Labor Conquers All."

Officers of the graduating class were Frank Lovoi, president; Dorothy Fields, secretary; Thomas Farley, treasurer.

Junior Endeavor Will Picture "China"

Presenting the subject "China" to their audience, the grammar school members of the Congregational Christian Endeavor will officiate at the evening service of their church next Sunday night at 7:45 o'clock, under the leadership of Miss Dorothy Merriman.

A short one-act play will be given by the juniors, which graphically depicts the work of American doctors in the Orient. Glenn DuBois will take the role of the doctor in China and will be assisted by the following cast: Joan Whitehouse, Emily Bohnett, Olivia Valencia, Bert Robinson, Paul Borg, Barbara Van Every, Kaleb Borg, Evelyn Rowe, Elizabeth Howe, Donald Snow, Kenneth Aksland, Lois Bohnett, David Crawley, Edward Kersgaard and Willie Cline.

Several musical numbers will be given by the juniors, including a solo by Miss Edna Marie Evans.

As a conclusion to the evening's entertainment picture slides of the Orient will be flashed on the screen.

KIWANIS HEAR LT.-GOV. AL FILES, MARK PURMORT

The official visit of Lieutenant-Governor Al Files was celebrated at the Kiwanis luncheon Tuesday. His principal message was the official invitation to the Interntional at Los Angeles this summer.

George Burrow, as chairman of the day, introduced the globe trotter, Mark Purmort, who told of his delightful visit through the south to Phoenix, Ariz., and "seeing Bakersfield" during the "big blizzard" back in '32. By and large, if greater luck can come to one motorist on one trip, Mark has not met him. Undaunted by all sorts of excitements, Mark and his wife completed a round trip of great interest, and some principal.

Tuesday next the Rev. Benjamin Gould of San Jose will speak on "Lincoln," with the Rev. Charles E. Irons directing the program.

QUERY CLUB FIVE MEETS LOS GATOS TEAM HERE TONITE

Tonight at the local high school gymnasium, 7:30 oclock, the unlimited squad of the Query club, Campbell organization of young men, will meet the Los Gatos high school alumni basketball team.

This is the first game the local boys have participated in this season. Hank Eddlemon and Merle Murty are among the lads available for substitution.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark E. Purmort are enjoying a visit from Mr. Purmort's sister, Mrs. A. L. Hart of Burbank. Mrs. Hart recently came from Anoka, Minn., to Burbank, where her daughter, Miss Una Hart, is a member of the public school faculty.

Friends of Miss Sylvia Best will regret to learn that she is ill and is confined to her home.

California Books Reviewed Monday At Woman's Club

The program presented to the Country Woman's club Monday was a sequel to that of the preceding meeting, the first including a study of California writers and the second a review of books by California authors.

Mrs. G. E. Farley presided and introduced Jimmie Rambo, a young student of the piano who played "The Butterfly" and responded to an encore. His rendition of both numbers was exceptional for so young a pianist.

Mrs. Allen Rudolph of Moorpark avenue followed with two songs by California authors, "The Pool of Quietness" and "The Moon Behind the Cottonwoods." As an encore she sang Rudy Seiger's "California Lullaby."

Mrs. C. W. Sutter then read a poem describing Los Gatos that appeared in a little volume of verse published by G. W. McGrew in 1885, entitled "The Story of a Bell and Other Poems," a copy of which was presented to her mother by the author, who lived in that city.

The chairman named a list of new books recently published or soon to be off the press, with a few sentences relative to each. Among those mentioned were Ruth Comfort Mitchell's latest, "The Legend of Susan Dane," to be out next month; Sarah Royce's "A Frontier Lady;" Father Bernard Hubbard's "Mush, You Malamutes;" Edith Ransom Neville's "The Fantastic City;" Mrs. Ernest Thompson Seton's "Log of the Look-See;" Charles Francis Saunders' "Western Wild Flowers and Their Stories;" Harry Carr's "The West Is Still Wild," and a number of others.

Two books had been selected by Mrs. Freeman Howes for extended reviews, both of which were presented very enterainingly, although the reviewer stated that neither of the books was particularly appealing or satisfying to her. One was the first novel published by Frank Norris, written during the years 1891-1897. It is a novel of greed, and depicts most unpleasantly the effect upon several characters of a legacy of money to one of their number.

"The Pity of God," by Beulah Marie Dix is said to be describing a typical suburban family. Mrs. Howes discredited the statement and so did her hearers.

Before the day's program Mrs. H. C. Smith read a "Salute to the Flag" (author unknown), with the members standing, and "A Great Lincoln Poem," by Wilbur D. Nesbit, in honor of the approaching birthday anniversary of that president.

R. M. Ritchey of the Union Pacific system will be present at the next meeting on Feb. 20, and present several reels of pictures of some of the more recently opened national parks. Visitors are welcome at this meeting to enjoy the pictures and talk, beginning at 3 o'clock.

Pentecostal Mission Holds Ministers' Meeting Monday

A district ministerial fellowship meeting of Pentacostal "The Assemblies of God" will be held Monday, Feb. 13, at the Campbell Pentecostal mission with services at 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. Representatives from the surrounding towns will be in attendance. Arrangements are being made for special musical programs at both services.

A well-known Bible teacher has been secured for the afternoon service and will speak on "Law and Grace," a subject which has been confusing many Bible students.

Evening service will be conducted along evangelistic lines. The general public is cordially invited to both meetings.

Sunday services at the mission will be as usual, with Bible school at 9:45 a. m. and morning worship and communion at 11 a. m. The pastor will preach on "Jesus, the Great I Am." Evangelistic services will be held at 7:30 p. m.

C.E. Groups Fete Parents, Friends At Dinner

Proud and happy parents assembled Wednesday night in the Congregational church parlors to be entertained at a Fellowship banquet given by their sons and daughters, all members of the three groups of the Christian Endeavor.

The function was under the general charge of Miss Dorothy Merriman, Miss Hancie Naylor, and Miss Ebba Swanson, ably assisted by the college, high school, and grammar school students.

Alfred Beer, college member, presided at the dinner table. Speaking in behalf of the grateful parents, Al Covey and Mrs. Easton Carter made short talks.

The evening's entertainment was varied and interesting. Dr. James Cutting, physician at the Agnew state hospital, displayed motion pictures of his travels through the resorts of the United States, accompanying them with a short lecture.

A clever monologue, with piano accompaniment, was given by Miss Lois and Miss Emily Bohnett.

Miss Charlotte Williams, accompanied by Miss Katherine Wood, sang several solos which were appreciatively received. Miss Williams, a new resident of Campbell, comes from Idaho where she won first place in the Atwater-Kent audition.

Collegians Preside At Congregational Church Services

College students took the pulpit of the Congregational church Sunday night and presented the evening services, thus carrying out the plan of the senior Christian Endeavor to regularly assume responsibility for the church program.

Miss Ebba Swanson, president of the group, presided. A large student choir sang several hymns, including "Brightly Gleams Our Banner," "Holy Spirit With Love Divine," and "I Will Sing the Wondrous Story." The congregation assisted with "Oh Day of Rest and Gladness" and "Day is Dying in the West." Mrs. W. H. Crothers presided at the organ.

In the student choir were the Misses Evelyn James, Bertha Bollinger, Helen Buck, Annette Merrill, Muriel Crothers, Margaret Carter, Elen Swanson, Elsie Swanson, Gladys Merriman, and Ruby Williamson, and Alfred Beer, Noel Voge, Joseph Jacobson, Elmer Sundquist, Abe Klassen, Dennis Bennett, and the Rev. J. H. Bennett.

Miss Annette Merrill presented an inspiring solo, "Seek Ye the Lord," by Nicholas. A mixed quartet, composed of Abe Klassen, Elmer Sundquist, Margaret Carter, and Muriel Crothers, sang "In Heaven the Stars Now Are Shining." The evening's Bible reading was given by Miss Helen Buck.

Noel Voge gave the evening's message, discussing problems which he and his contemporaries have discussed, including pacifism, eugenics and the worthwhileness of life today.

Nice Work of C.T. Fawcett, Cabinet Maker

Campbell folks who are interested in fine cabinet work should drop into the wood-working shop of C. T. Fawcett, on South First street, at the rear of the library.

Continually at work on a piece of furniture, a cupboard, or some other article of wood, Mr. Fawcett has at present two particularly delightful desks at the shop, awaiting delivery to their owners. One, a solid walnut desk of the close-top variety, was built for a family in Soquel, and the other, a beautifully grained, perfectly fitted flat-top of oak is for James Knappen of Marysville.

In addition to these desks, there are many other bits of woodwork to be seen. Footstools, shelves, tables, looms, repair work, etc., occupy Mr. Fawcett's time when he is not executing a more pretentious commission. He has been doing fine work in wood for over six decades, and is always glad to have people drop in for a visit and to examine his work.

Mrs. Amos B. Townsend will entertain Group 2 of the Congregational Guild this Thursday afternoon at 2:00 p. m.

Furnace Heat for homes without a basement

GAS HEATING EQUIPMENT MAKES THIS POSSIBLE

IN too many homes a heating system that gives circulated heat has been neglected. Because excavation for a basement is costly or because homes have been built so that no basement has been possible, stoves and fireplaces have become the heating system for these homes.

Today gas floor furnaces change the whole situation for homes without a basement and homes that can never have a basement. These efficient heating devices, capable of keeping homes of from four to seven rooms to "Comfort Zone" warmth, can be quickly and easily installed.

Gas floor furnaces have established a record for economy in supplying small homes with furnace heat. The local office of the P. G. & E. can show you what other residents in your locality are paying for floor furnace heat. Phone your local gas appliance dealer or talk with a representative of this company today about floor furnace heat.

Natural Gas will maintain this "Comfort Zone" 71° 65° at low cost

The floor plan to the left shows a typical floor furnace installation in a small home. These compact heating units rapidly circulate an abundance of warm air and are capable of heating several rooms. When of adequate size and properly installed these efficient heaters solve the problem of circulated heat for small homes at a very low cost.

Mrs. Rose Hanger Entertains Club At Birthday Party

Mrs. Rose Hanger entertained the January Birds, a group of friends with birthdays in January, at a dainty luncheon last Monday.

Cool green and white were the color motif of the party. Green and white linen, and green and white table service harmonized with the center bowl of white narcissus and fern.

Needlework and conversation diverted the guests during the afternoon.
